

President's Column

It seems like we just finished the June shoot but it's already time to start thinking about our October prize shoot. Is it just me or is time going faster? Anyway June was hot as usual but fun just the same. We had a visit from the family of Ralph Sears who came out to spread his ashes on the range. Ralph shot black powder cartridge guns at Brady many years ago and it was his wish to be spread on several ranges where he competed. We took an extended cease-fire to allow them to honor his wishes. Our Saturday meal was catered by "The Spread" in Brady and all I heard were good comments. They are in the old Hard 8 location in town in case you want more BBQ. We had several new shooters come out and after all these years I finally brought one out myself. I guess it's about time.

As I said before October is our prize shoot so remember to bring an item worth ten dollars for your admission fee or pay ten dollars. Saturday night we will have our traditional beef stew in the big pot on the hill and then our annual auction to raise money to put extra items on the prize table. If you have something to contribute to the auction it will be appreciated. I'd like to do more shooting than I did last year so if anyone wants to volunteer to make the stew please speak up. Don Klaerner and Steven Marlow helped out last year. Are Y'all up for it again?

Andy Larson is selling raffle tickets for the rifle to be given away at next year's October shoot. It is a fine flintlock that was built by Mel Weaver and donated from the vast collection of Durrell Haynes. Tickets are $10 each with a limit of 1000 to be sold. All proceeds go to the TMLRA capitol acquisition fund.

I want to introduce Ken Rupkalvis to those of you who don't know him. Ken shoots at the Alamo gun club at La Coste and has been coming out to all three of our Brady shoots for the last 3 or 4 years. He let slip the fact that he has prior newsletter experience so we twisted his arm a little bit. Welcome aboard Ken and a big "Thanks" to Kevin Haynes for a job well done.

I hope to see you all soon.

Editor's Column

I apologize for the tardiness of the Swap Sheet this month. It's a challenge writing with a twisted arm. Once up on a time in a state far way I was introduced to the smell of black powder. The shooting was great but what really impressed me was the camaraderie of the whole community. I find this camaraderie all around the country where ever shoot. The mentoring I received early on helped me get holes on target. Now days the ready atmosphere of banter and freely offered advice is something to look forward to at every shoot. I find this very true at our state association shoots. Just think how it would be if get we got most all the muzzle loaders in the state to show up at the state association shoots or at even at the club shoots around the state. Wouldn't it be a grand time. To that end I've included the listings and shoot dates for the clubs in the state that I know of. Let's shoot.

Club Visits

As editor of the Swap Sheet I am hoping to bring a new aspect to our newsletter. I hope to visit and shoot with as many of the state muzzle loader clubs as I am able. On Saturday, September 14th I was treated to a great shoot with the Greenwood Long Rifles at the Greenwood Gun Club located in Brazoria, TX. This is one of the best shooting venues I have visited. The club has extensive facilities for just about all the shooting and archery disciplines. Ken and Mark Springs were very gracious hosts and made me feel right at home. I came prepared to shoot and they sure did shoot. They have a round bull aggregate of three five shot targets 25, 50 and 100 yard, a four target hunter aggregate and a two target pistol aggregate of 10 shoots each at 25 and 50 yards. So I burned a better part of a pound of powder that day. Of note this is Andy Larson's home club as well as Steve Otteson's. Andy was off doing something very important that day so he did not shoot. I didn't mention that it was their club's championship shoot.

The weather was a challenge but it didn't dampen the competition. I had a great time and greatly enjoyed the fellowship and the range. Once again I want to thank Ken and Mark and the club shooters for making me feel so welcome. I hope to be back for the Chunk Gun Championship.
